WINTER PARK, Fla.—This summer, families are invited to learn more about the works of Louis Comfort Tiffany through two free programs at the Morse Museum designed especially for children in kindergarten through fifth grade and their parents or guardians.

The museum's summer offerings for families include a family-friendly gallery tour with take-home activity on five Tuesday mornings and a film, tour, and an art activity on five Friday mornings. Registration begins May 2. Space in these free family programs is limited, and reservations are required. Details are as follows:

- Family tours—A 40-minute guided tour through several galleries on the following Tuesdays at 11 a.m.: June 28, July 5, 12, 19, and 26. The program includes a take-home art activity.
- Friday Family Films—A short film, gallery tour, and art activity on the following Fridays at 10 a.m.: July 1, 8, 15, 22, and 29. This program lasts about 90 minutes.

All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. A $5 refundable deposit per person is requested when securing a reservation for either program. Call (407) 645-5311, extension 136, to make a reservation or request more information.

The museum's summer hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $6 for adults, $5 for seniors, $1 for students, and children younger than age 12 receive free admission and are welcome any day of the week with their parents or guardians. The Morse Museum is owned and operated by the Charles Hosmer Morse Foundation and receives additional support from the Elizabeth Morse Genius Foundation. It receives no public funds.
